Dear H.P.H.S Member,

What with all the unpacking of so many boxes, sorting out where to put the furniture and wondering if I should keep this or that and repainting all the rooms and then rearranging everything including decluttering. The garage is now full of stuff that I do not have room or is now obsolete which is to be removed by the local Council in the early spring (when it should be warmer). So, with all this going on I have been doing some work with the Hampshire Post, but alas, you have not sent me anything to add to the Journal which means you will have to put up with what I have.

Now for a big question:- Do want to continue receiving copies of The Hampshire Post. This Journal will only be successful if you will contribute. Please let me know either way as I am now preparing the 1st issue for 2024. As I pay for all paper, envelopes, postage and ink cartridges, I would like to know your thoughts on continuation.

I wish all Members a Very Happy and Eventful Year ahead.

Peter.

Dear Sir

I have received your favour of this mornings post and beg to say that I sent copies of your forms to Sir Robert Kingsmill in London, but he is confind to his bed with the gout, and that is the reason I have received no answer from him on the subject. – I have given him my opinion as to his liability to pay the bills, and have no doubt as soon as he is well enough, I shall hear from him, and be able to you very satisfactory – Under these circumstances I ask Messrs Heath will delay proceedings until I can write you with Sir Robert Kingsmill's answer.

T. Woodham.

P.S.

Upon a proper understanding from Sir Robert Kingsmill, I shall have no hesitation in making myself answerable as mentioned in your former letter.

Sir,

The reason Mr. King is not enabled to give an acceptance payable at Mich-mas as he intended was from his having been very unexpectedly and very unhandsomely pressed for sums he did not expect to called on to pay until Lady Day.

Mr. Burnett resides in Winchester and is sole Proprietor of Wagons which travel four times to London, he also occupies a Farm of 900l a year at Worthy and was the debt mine I sho'd readily take his acceptance for as many Thousands as your Debt is hundreds.
